

Chia-Jung Hsieh (Nikita)

I am a web developer and UX/UI designer. I graduated from UC San Diego and majored in Visual Art -Interdisciplinary Computer and Art. My cross-disciplinary academic background enables me to adopt diverse thinking modes when facing challenges. As a web developer and UX/UI designer, I am able to effectively communicate with various professional teams to transform complex requirements into easy-to-use and visually beautiful interfaces. My goal is to continuously improve my professional skills while providing better solutions to enhance the user experience.
